

What is TeachMeet?

Learn something new. Be amazed, amused and enthused. This is an informal gathering of those curious about teaching and learning. Anyone can share great ideas they've trialled in their classrooms, ask important questions or simply sign up to take part in learning conversations. Education professionals from all sectors are welcome to take part.

"TeachMeet is probably the best CPD opportunity in any industry ever" Chris Radcliffe, Sales Director at Scholastic Education

"Grassroots, teachers sharing inspiration for free, voluntary, networks, a true window into other people's classrooms" Tom Barrett, Deputy Head in Nottingham and regular TES columnist

The main part of TeachMeet is hearing stories about learning, from teachers. This is not an event to present about a product or theory - this is a chance for teachers from all types of establishments to hear ideas from each other. Real narratives of practice that make a real difference. It is about being engaged and inspired by our immediate colleagues and a whole bucket load of networking to boot!

If you have never been before then take a look at the movie which can be found on our blog

Please share with your staff and get them to sign up and join us for the night – even if it's to sit and listen to all the excellent things that can be used within the classroom.

<http://teachmeet.pbworks.com/tmbpool> or visit our blog at <http://teachmeetbpool.hawes-side.net>

For further information, please contact James Maloney or Tom Sale via our school emails

james.maloney@hawes-side.blackpool.sch.uk or thomas.sale@mereside.blackpool.sch.uk